Who does not like a great shopping trip?

Who does not like a great shopping trip when sexy clothing get involved together with adoration and body worship, teasing, stroking and denial and domination.

This is a very sexy session and an amazing experience.

As a slave to Domina Shelle that's not a sissy, I find it amazing as to how many times i've found myself shopping for shoes, dresses, jewelry and so many other sexy items for women. Well one Woman in particular. my beautiful, perfect Owner, the goddess, Domina Shelle. Oh how i would love to take Domina on a shopping spree. i want to be rich, not for me, but for my Domina, so i could lavish Her with all that She desires.

A light and fun session with a deeper meaning behind it. This session had just the right amount of coercion, sexiness and mind control. Taking my Domina shopping is something that i always enjoy, so it was extremely fun to experience this session.

Wow what an amazing file. i love this file, helping Domina try on clothes. Helping Her put the clothes on . The sexy visualization of Her body, Her legs, Her feet was overwhelming and it just made this file so amazing and so erotic. i was so wet afterwards. This file is like a work of art. The way Domina makes everything so visual in my mind. How it just flowed starting with the dress and then finding shoes and trying different stuff on...oh my God, Domina is just so sexy. She just turns me on so much. i just want to buy Her everything now. LOL i can't wait to listen again and again.

Visions of Domina Shelle come to life in this listen. Watching her as she shops and helping her as her personal shopping assistant. Be a good submissive and listen.

This is an incredibly sexy session, with Domina's total dominion over my mind, so real i can still feel, smell and taste the experience. A true dream trance, i am struggling to remember enough to write a review, the dream is fading, but i know that i will revisit this trance often. It is always a treat when Domina allows me to spoil Her, especially with the deeply conditioned pleasure response She has programmed into me. This session is just opportunity after opportunity to spoil this Angel that i call my Domina. i can hardly wait until i am triggered to make it real.
