I must tribute my Domina. She rewards me with satisfaction and arousal. Every text, every tweet, every sound from her fills me with yearning for more of her and it only feels better and better each time she commands me. My Domina Queen.

i can't wait to see pictures of Domina Shelle's Halloween costume. Adding to her wardrobe funds is always a pleasure and always a worthwhile gift. Will it be a skin-tight rubber catsuit? An erotic witch who will turn all males that glance at her into her mini? We will just have to wait and see.

i love to spoil my Princess-Domina. Especially i love to gift clothes to Her which i already did on some occasions. But i love Her newest option Her as She can use the money and go out to shop sexy and adorable wear. my mind is wondering and i am so excited what She will choose to buy. Whatever it'll be i know She will be looking so adorable wearing it!

i dreamed of Her in a second skin. The garment pleased her with a gentle erotic caress and she wore it with authority.
