Domina brings me down by lecturing on the power of words – I just can agree and go deeper, helpless and not knowing what Her words will do to me this time. The echoes of Her words start to resonate in my head. It feels as if my head is shaking with the frequency of Her echoes and my mind is floating on the waves of Her repetitions. But this is just the preparation for deeper brainwashing. - The "Point of Impact" is my favorite complement to the Echoes .

With this very relaxing file my Domina took me very deep into sleep. Throughout the whole file She echoed words that were etched directly into my mind. Words that allow Her to gain even more control over my mind and my body. i embrace every opportunity where i can hand over more power to my Domina to become even weaker for Her. i love Her and the power She has over me.

A very pleasant session. Not overloaded but just exactly right. I absolutely love the echoes, and had great pleasure listening to the file. rnrnTo be honest I personally wouldn't mind a more similar similar sessions, maybe also "non-explosive" ones. Just with just pure relaxation and hypnotic enjoyment.

Warning, this file shouldn't be for the casual or new listeners, but for those already addicted to Princess.rnrnPrincess uses new techniques to increase Her powerful words and control over You.rnrnThis file is excellent ! Very soft, sensual, sweet and tactful (gently arousing too) in the purest style of Princess. While You are more sleepy and comfortable, Princess does Her job, permanently reinforcing Her influence over You.

I have always loved Princess Shelle's Voice, but in this session it achieves a new level of perfection. With Princess' guided imagery and the echo effect she uses here the experience is sublime.

Some words must be remembered. Words of passion. Words of control. Words of dominance. In her newest recording, Princess Shelle initiate you, to the control of her most powerful word. I won't say what those words are, you must buy the session to figure it out. For those, who are accustomed to her sessions and her beautiful seductive hypnosis voice, you have probably heard these words a thousand of times. But, in this session she use a special technique to push those words deeper in the center of your subconscious mind. A totally different approach that what she done before. But, very effective. If you read the title, it's something about the echo. With this recording, you will be relaxed to the sound of these words and you will be very aroused. And this new special brainwashing technique will let you, more open, more suggestible, and more controlled by Princess Shelle, than ever. Your bound to her will be tighter. And no escape is possible. You will simply drift down even more, into her spell. And it's exactly what she wants. And I don't know for you, but, I always want what she wants.
