Description

FEAR (34 minutes + Mantra Loop)

Whenever you hear My voice you naturally become more relaxed for Me, escaping into the erotic hypnotic world I have created for you. With your trust it opens your subconscious mind to My hypnosis, and in trance, your mind is now perfectly conditioned to follow all My instructions and commands. The more My voice penetrates your mind, the more obedient you become, the more pleasure you feel throughout your whole body.

Are you brave enough to listen and overcome your fear? Well, that is all I will say about this session...Oh, except for the fact that I will be doing some work in the cerebral hemisphere of your brain. Funny thing is, as always, you will listen because the curiosity is way too much to bare.

Domina's voice is so reassuring, commanding and convincing. She has instilled in me that i have no fear of obeying any of her commands. It just is way too arousing and pleasurable not to!

I love this one, I don't remember much but I feel very aroused wanting to serve and obey even more. I want to become the best slave my Domina can wish for

I do not remember much of what was said in this session but I desired to listen to shed any fears that I had inside so that I can submit and serve Domina even more diligently.... I must say I awoke Horny and Aroused with a craving to please! The more I listen the more I feel the need to obey mindlessly, without thought, without question... no hesitation. That is all I can remember. Serving under Domina Shelle is complete Bliss! I do not have to know what She is doing inside my mind, I just know that I trust Her and She knows what I need even more now.

This was the file that finally allowed me to accept that I was holding back. Domina was able to make my fantasy a reality, I was too afraid to let go.

Once I listened to this file for the first time, something clicked. I have embraced what Domina has offered, I have accepted her power and future training. The start of my true submission to my Domina.

To me this is an essential session for those serious about getting the most from hypnotic conditioning with Domina Shelle. Mental resistance is most commonly the biggest obstacle to entering the deepest of trances and acts as an impediment to accepting powerful suggestions. This is typically born out of fear, fear of the unknown, fear of losing control, of being powerless, of not recalling sessions, and the list goes on. Even when we think we trust the hypnotist our primal fear still emerges when exposed to potentially life-changing suggestions and this is when you need the training in this session. Domina has developed an effective method to deflect our resistance by promoting our trust in her and the use of a mantra to shutdown all resistance. With repeated listens and some internal focused conditioning this is very effective and will benefit those that wish to push their boundaries and embrace everything Domina Shelle has to teach about submission, devotion and adoration.

Anything that makes me a better subject/slave for Domina is worth having. And this session does exactly that.

Fear can be exciting and a driving force. Fear can be the spice that makes experiences memorable and exciting. But also fear can block my way to go further, Fear can hinder me to stretch my limits. Domina starts to control my fear: soothe me to push me further into submission to her or stimulate my fear for a deep exciting experience and mind f*ck. Controlling my fear is a next level of her absolute authority!

I agree with others that this is nice and relaxing file. Domina builds my trust in Her and makes sure that I'm not afraid of being in Her service and obey Her. I must have dozed off in the end because I have trouble remembering what happened. I was so deep.

There is nothing to fear here. Domina Shelle expertly leads the subject down into a trance so deep they might not even notice until they regain consciousness. I think i enjoyed the heck out of this session. That was certainly my impression after waking, but if i am completely honest I don't really remember very much. I came to some time after the session had finished feeling extremely relaxed. I feel good about whatever Domina Shelle chose to do with my mind while i was away.

This file is amazing. First I've thought that this session will create fear but boy was I wrong. This is such a soothing relaxing experience. It will help you to create pleasant dreams and it has a very helpful twist... just try it out and get addicted...

Sometimes Domina will release a file that fills me with such emotion that I literally start crying while listening. This file is one. i'm not sure what She does. What Shes saying that hits that deep part of me that only She can reach. But this file is just what I need. My need to think only of Her and no one else. my need to be aroused only by Her. My need to give all of me to Her. It's as if Domina reads my subconscious mind and paints pictures that only my heart can see. She knows my mind and what I need. She truly does my thinking for me. I almost want to cry typing this review.....

In this file I have never felt more relaxed and peaceful, sleeping helplessly, while Domina slowly and methodically fucks my mind. The technical information she explains about Freudian theory explains clearly how she will manipulate my subconscious thoughts to shape my responses while conscious. I'm not sure of the chain reaction of all that happens, but after longing to listen to this file several times, I find myself on my knees begging for Domina's commands. Without her commands, I have no opportunity for receiving pleasure or joy. The alternative is loneliness and misery. Every decision I will wonder what would Domina do? And in the end, I will only have joy when I obtain permission from her for everything. It's her approval and smile I long and live for. Thank you, Domina.

With Fear, Domina is taking away the most problematic thing standing between complete obedience of a slave to Her will. It is important that a slave is obedient to Her without thought or question... though there is always that "fear" of consequences and negative effects that actually must not be thought of by the slave. i love that Domina is helping me and all the other slaves out there to get rid of this fear. In my eyes this file is a must have for anyone who craves to become a perfect servant for Domina Shelle.
