I have strived to belong to Domina Shelle in any way and every way possible. I never had any interest in findom, but for Domina Shelle who is the actual owner of everything i supposedly own. i must surrender anything and everything She demands. I know She would never do it, but if my Domina told me to send Her everything in my possession and in my bank account and that i should go live in a carboard box, i wouldnt hesitate to do so. She is everything and everything belongs to Her
